

RICHARD R. GUILLORY
Natural Resource Planning Services, Inc.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

*2001 –
Present*

Senior Forester

Natural Resource Planning Services, Inc., Gainesville, Florida

Specialize in design and implementation of timber inventory projects for private and public timber tracts. Maintain company comparable timber sales database. Also participate in all professional service activities offered by the firm including timber inventories, appraisals, stand projection and financial analysis, design and implementation of forest management plans, and all aspects of forest management.

*2000 –
2000*

Manager of Resource Optimization

International Paper Company, Jacksonville, Florida

Responsibilities included directing and maintaining the GIS database, supervising the collection of inventory data, maintaining the land records database, preparing harvesting schedules which met SFI and BMP requirements, and evaluating all land sales and purchases. Duties were for the Gulf-Atlantic Region (900,000 acres). Accepted early retirement package.

*1985 –
2000*

Manager- Land Planning and Inventories

Champion International Corporation, Jacksonville, Florida

Corporate merger resulted in becoming manager of Eastern Florida Region (800,000 acres). Responsibilities included inventory, long-range planning, budgeting, 10K and annual reports, conducting timber cruising courses for employees, long term contract reports, and GIS. Also was responsible for growth studies, depletion, land sales, contract conversions, and resource analysis studies for the Whitehouse and Waycross sawmills.

*1980 –
1985*

Planning Manager

St. Regis Paper Company, Jacksonville, Florida

Responsibilities included running models to develop harvesting and regeneration plans for all holding in the Southern Timberlands Division (approximately 2 million acres in Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida).

1975 –
1980

Senior Technical Forester

St. Regis Paper Company, Jacksonville, Florida

Supervision of four Technical Foresters in Southern Timberlands Division. Assisted in development of timber growth models to aid in management of long-term timber harvest contracts.

1968 –
1975

Assistant Inventory Forester

St. Regis Paper Company, Pensacola, Florida

Assisted in timber inventory and land management activities.

1966 –
1968

U.S. Army Active Duty

While in Vietnam was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in ground operations against hostile forces.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Forestry, Louisiana State University

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Management Development Series
Collaborative Skills and Supervision

ASSOCIATIONS

Florida Forestry Association - member
Forest Resource Association - member